Quotation

"This is no agitation. It is a defence movement. The war is one of the government against the women - by means of the denial of a just right & carried out by unjust sentences, unjust condemnations & the abomination of forcible feeding."

"When they had the vote women would come to the front door for what they wanted."

Henry George.

"I am convinced that we make a great mistake in depriving one sex of a voice in public matters, & that we could in no way increase the attention, the intelligence and the devotion which may be brought to the solution of social problems as by enfranchising our women."

Prophecy "A heavy Karma, as Theosophists would say, is in store for man"
