Dear Miss McCutchen

Since my dear husband left me, I have been obliged to cut off some of my subscriptions - as I cannot ^{easily} ever find time when in London, to go to the Women's Institute, I feel I must pay my small contribution for the last time - I shall always take a great interest in the Institute remembering so well & how it was founded by the late lamented Lady Stairds.

Yours faithfully

Ms Lydia A. Booth
