BUCKINGHAM PALACE

18 Oct. 1902

Dear Mrs. Fawcett

I have submitted your letter to the King, and I am desired to let you know that it will give him much pleasure to accept a copy of your
"Life of Sir William"
"Molesworth -"

Sir William showed great farsight - in what he said and note as to the future connection of the colonies with the "mother country", and His Majesty anticipates being much interested by a perusal of the work.

I remember having had the pleasure of meeting you at dinner at Chesham with Mr. Fawcett one evening, many years ago now -

Believe me

Yours truly

Arthur
