My dear Lin Strachey,

Your U.S. appeal has come in vain to me, as I'm bankrupt.
But I hear from <sup>Lin Thomson</sup> that you are short of <sup>unpaid</sup> speakers. Will you please therefore make free with my services in this way: - Where the Branch can pay my £1.1 let 'em & I'll give it to you <sup>Gen: Election</sup> ~~Box~~ - Election fund. Where ~~is~~ ~~it~~ it can't pay, I'll do, but in order to keep up the fiction that I'm a paid speaker, would you be able to arrange that the London Society paid me the £1.1
& I gave it back again?
'Sorry to juggle like this but

75 VICTORIA STREET
S.W.

I do feel that I ~~do~~ want to remain officially a paid speaker & I do also feel that I want to contribute something to the London Society. I can't possibly subscribe, so perhaps I can take it out in work! —

Don't bother to answer
this & excuse scrawl —

Yours in haste

Cecily Deane (S.G.)
