My dear Lady Frances,

I saw Mr Pankhurst and

Mr Pelluck Lawrence this afternoon

They absolutely decline to give any guarantee to abstain from violence beyond the end of this week unless some day is granted for the 2nd reading before July 9. Under Under these circumstances I felt I could only consider our resolution a joint Demonstration at an end.

It was conditional of course in its being a peaceful Demonstration.

Yours affectionately,

W. Fawcett
