My dear Kelly

I cannot write a letter, so must answer by a card, I am far too weak and ill. But thank you very much for your kind remembrance which I treasure I often think of you affectionately when I think of old friends now.

I am in the tender care of my sisters, but I hope I will not be from much longer, for I am very sick of life.

Good bye, my dear old friend

Yours affably.

Alison Cotton.
