Dec. 15. 1906.

Dear Mr. Duckworth.

I wonder what you will think of the request I'm going to make. I belong to the august body ~~which~~ <sup>have</sup> named above & we have drawn up towards the formation of libraries, & so it occurred to me that you wd perhaps not mind my asking you for any ~~share~~ books yr firm may have to spare

"The smallest contribution wd be gratefully received"
- at the office.

I hope you will not think me a great bore, & that, even if you do, you
