Dear Sir.

June 3. 74

Dear Miss Davies

I am expecting an opportunity next week of making a motion ~~at~~ for legislation to remove the legal impediments
which have prevented Deques being read in Edinburgh University

to female graduates & I should like to point to the expression of Cambridge to show that women can profit by the opportunities of university-teaching as well as men.
Can you mention to me some facts
showing that young women have proved

on examination
that they have obtained as much knowledge & acquired as much intellectual power as the young men -

My wife is hoping to visit your College before it closes - & though we have been detained in Ireland
we expect to arrive in London at 15 Great St. Martin Street tomorrow -

for the purpose
