Dear Mr. Taylor,

Mr. Taylor was admitted again today. She is still in Hospital but hopes to leave it any day. She needs her love to recall. She is under rules of prison committed from Sesnon - no visitors or letters until 2 months time, & no outside food. She has books from Prison Library.
She wears her own clothes - those are the privileges I can gather she has. But she is very contented. She was glad you received her notes. and all your letters are such a joy to her

St. Wilks visits also each time.
There are not many other persons in the hospital & today they were all having tea together at a / acceptable.

she hopes to be out June 4th.
It is interesting to her to find I know the Rolls Russells, and Johnny Russell's mother certain of the comes to see, & also attend my church. He comes to see her on Sunday.
When I read the name I asked Mr. Taylor who Johnny Russell was, & it turned out to be the one I knew of. His aunt, Mrs.
Joachim I was visiting in Wolverhampton until her removal to Sandstone.

You will have heard of the Hunger Strike at Aylesbury. all is quiet at Holloway. Yours sincerely F. Hamilton
