Dear Mrs Fawcett

I would have answered your kind letter sooner, but I wanted my husband
to see Mrs McLaren's letter as I knew it would cheer him

feels your branches of your very gratefully
Dear M. Head

For he has left Mr.
Bright's silence

My husband has indeed gone through a terrible trial during the investigations
but he knew God was
with him upholding & strengthening him

He is full of joy & gladness that God
has been so good

to him in allowing him to do so much

It has been a very great help to him to know that so many were praying for him, & the great kindness of so many good people has been very comforting to me & strengthened my faith. Neither of us have any fear about

the result of the trial
It is in God's hands & he will do what is best. The meetings he has been holding have been most encouraging.
Tonight he has a dreadful cold, but he feels he must go to Dr.
Clifford's meeting.
It is very good of you
speaking my husband
