Dear Miss Atkinson

Many thanks for letter, we see this interesting letter of Mrs. Hestland. It must be very falling to work see her long years of work to develop the Queen on the feminist side essentially ignored by the new proprietors. I have long had a complete mis-trust of the Reinman Group. There is to be a special meeting of the CC board tomorrow to hear his latest proposal of the N. U. S. & C. executive with regard to future arrangements between themselves & the CC Board. I had a visit about six weeks ago from a Mr. Coffer who came with an introduction from Mr. Holgerd Knight. He had in contemplation a significant scheme for a woman's paper, ^{to be called 'The Woman's Charter'} 250,000 per week circulation, Capital £50,000 or £100,000. It was to provide everything for every woman. In fact the whole scheme seemed to me simply fantastic. It may possibly have had something to do with this Pinnerman speculation. Mr. Coffer himself was a most repulsive looking person dressed like a tailor's advertisement.

I hear from our CC people that there has been a decided advance in the last few weeks in our circulation. The paper is now on sale on all railway bookstalls & Smith's sent back to our office ^{last week} asking for more. I was so glad to see an article in the Illustrated paper & was very sorry not to be able to send you a
