Dear Madam

I cannot refrain from writing you a line to thank both on my own behalf & the Baroness's for your very kind & appreciative letter, and to say that in the heat & turmoil of party conflict - which I would to heaven might be less 'party' than it is - it is most refreshing to turn to such a letter as yours. full of generous sentiment for a great life & a great character it is true, but for one <sup>also</sup> who is keenly sensible of & grateful for the appreciation of one so well qualified to judge as yourself.

Believe me

Dear Madam

Yours faithfully & sincerely

W. Burdett-Coutts
