My dear Pippa

Red herrings

again I fear with no prospect of a change of diet for several months.

The only excitement since I last wrote is that one of the workmen at the bridge was knocked down by a rope and broke his

ly. This is not a very exciting piece of news certainly - it is a small one but it is all I have so no offence being intended I hope you will receive it in the spirit in which it was intended.

In our next number we hope to supplement the news columns with the first chapter of a serial story by one of the most eminent authors of the day entitled "Pass along please or the Policeman's dilemma" In the mean time (Greenwich)

Farewell

Yr loving brother
