Thank
Jessie

Dear Mr. Taylor,

Thank you so much for sending me the copies of the letters you have sent relating to Miss Crocker + Miss Roberts + also your dear wife's letter.

I had to go out of Leicester on business yesterday + so did not actually read the letter but my husband told me what she said. I am so thankful she is so bright. I hear that sympathisers are sending lovely fruit into Holloway & be divided equally between the prisoners so it doesn't look much as if the cause was on the wane, does it!

You + your wife are constantly in my thoughts. I hope the little boy is better + will you please give my love to Dordchea -

With very kind regards from my husband + myself,

Believe me

Yours sincerely

Alice Pemberton Teape

P.S. I am glad you are speaking at Nottingham on Tuesday. The backing of one brave husband is worth a million ordinary sympathisers to the cause.
