You will say "Caprice"
My name is "Barnard" - but hear me out. - There is such a bustle in this hotel, from a change of landlords this day - that we have been tempted to take a tray but dear lodging, and as we must pay for the week we think to prolong our stay till Tuesday. To this week is left direction as our Scottish hostess had some doubt whether her maids and brooms would have performed their functions by Monday night.

You will give us credit for fine taste in polite literature when I tell you that our new lodging is at the Circulating Library consisting of about 20 marble covered glass cases. - If any letters come for us have The goodness to send them but not after Sunday - Post Office Torquay.

Last night our friends Sir J. and Lady Acland appeared to us - they had been in pursuit of us at Dartmouth. We have just been to pack them off - Tho they are as much in love with this delightful place as we are, and would gladly have staid at a little petty lodging like ours, had they not been bound to a distant part of the Coast.

With best regards
yours faithfully
Wm
