My dear Lady Frances.

I am quite sure every one will understand your wish to get away from the strain & stress of our Saffrage work just over this anniversary season. We all feel you have been quite splendid in the great amount of work you have done for W.S.

during this last 12 months.

I shall be both astonished & angry if, when we vote for the Ex: Com: comes in, our good folks don't show their gratitude by electing you by a unanimous majority.

I am very full of fears about our prospects & believe we shall probably be tricked again though any thing more plain and positive than the pledges

As you have given us on Nov 17th - cannot be imagined.

If he breaks them he will disgrace himself and his

Gov^t. Pray note this with Mr.

Spencer. Sir H. Lucy is entirely misrepresenting what happened on Nov 17 in L.D. in Observer, see the article "Under the Clock". I never wonder why we think ourselves a truthful people.

My own experience of the D.orce Commission revealed what your 3 clerics were - absolutely hopeless and mistaking names & words for essential things. I
