Dear Miss Corbett

16 JUN 1917

I thank you most warmly for your very kind message of congratulation on my birthday and ^{good wishes} for the speedy success of our great cause.

I feel that we have a right now to very great confidence that a large measure of success is a practical certainty in the near future, and that next week will probably produce further evidence of this. At headquarters we feel how very much we owe this to the loyal co-operation of our Societies and members throughout the Union, and of

Supporters generally all over the Country

Believe me, Sincerely yours

M. Fawcett
