32 ADDISON ROAD,

KENSINGTON, W.

My dear Mrs Fawcett.
I much send you this letter.
It is worth reading. - tho' long. It ought to have reached me before yesterday but, I did not get it till night.
When hunger striking - I feel ing began. Mrs Chapman write me, whether I wd not take my stand agt forcible feeding. I told her, I felt the force wd not do anything else, (that I thought there efforts wd be frustrated. I believe Gladstone does not mean to use this method again. She did not answer, & writes this, just to know me, what I think is true, that they are winning on their own lines. That they may have any success, it is necessary for us to play the other game. The encuse of not giving it, be-demand cause the <sup>entire</sup> measure has become anarchical, must not be given to any government. I have no doubt wh. game is the eariest to play! When you have read it, will you pick <sup>up</sup> ~~put~~ it to 'dad' Betty Balfour, Whitting name, Preston Kirk. She will know what it is. Spender comes to me tonight. I hear he thinks the Budget will be thrown out. I want.

to give him a fright over suffrage. I think I can induce him to see reason.

Yrs affly
