Dear Mrs Strachey,

I have just received your postcard, & am so sorry that you are put out at not receiving my accounts. I sent them to Mrs Dimock & I did not send them until Saturday as I thought the accounts for the months had to be entered.

I had no idea I was causing you any inconvenience. What am I to do for the future, not send them to Miss Dimock but to the office? & on what date ~~do~~ do you wish to receive them?
In haste & again saying how sorry I am to have caused trouble

Yours sincerely,

Mildred Watson.

Ms. Tempory has written to say that she has not received the receipt books (Richmond) Will you kindly see about this, & am afraid it must have been lost in the post.
