

Personal.

1916

3986

Mrs S. Macnaughton - died 1916.

In the two years of war she worked in a Nursing
Camp at Antwerp. —

1915. Asked by Government to lecture to munition workers — June to Oct. when 1915- Oct she left for Russia with an ambulance party. — In Persia fell seriously ill — died July 1916.

Last Book My Canadian Memories

(Her earlier books were very popular novels
a ~~camp~~ Dogs Diary — Fortunes Chestiana McNat) etc.

She names women veterans of Canadian colonisation as well as men —

Mrs Susannah Moodie — 1832

La Mère Marie de l'Incarnation — the Ursuline Nuns
in 17th century.

Madeline de Verchères, Canada's Joan of Arc held the fort of Québec almost single handed against the Iroquois Indians.

Women Voters of Vancouver supported the carrying of the Canadian Northern Railway through their city to the shores of the Pacific when vested interests blocked the way.