Dear Mrs. Billington-Greig,

I do apologise for leaving your letter so long unanswered but an invalid in the house, numerous guests in the holidays, have been more than I could cope with.

No Will you be at the National Women's Citizen's party on May 23rd, to-morrow, as I shall be there and we could have a talk? Otherwise, I shall not be in London until June 5th, though I hope not to expire before then!

Yes
Meanwhile, I will hunt for biographical notes which I was asked to make some years ago, which will give you the basic facts you need.

I do not think I shall be at the Pandit meeting on June 7th as I have to be up on the 5th and will have a friend staying here on the 6th and 7th.

If I can find the material I want, it might not be urgent for us to meet, though it always gives me great pleasure to do so.

Yours sincerely,

W. Corbett Ashby
