Dear Miss Strachey,

Mrs. Pollard from Wimbledon has been nominated to act as one of our representatives at Portsmouth, as she is going in any case she feels it would be a waste for us to appoint her but suggests that Miss Edith Webster their really keen local secretary should be asked to go as this kind of responsibility and confidence shown in her is just what she wants to strengthen her to do her work. Would it be possible for you to send her in as one of your nominations in case any of the ladies you nominate are not able to stand?

Yours sincerely,

Margery I. Corbett
