

Delhi Bridge

4595 & Bengal
8th June 1908

(17)

My dear Peppa,

The monsoon is expected in about a week, and everything is being cleared out of the river bed. Palmer is going home next ~~month~~^{month} for three months and will probably come and pay a polite call on you, so don't turn him from the door or I shall not get promotion. Also remember that the word sisters and his dearest friends scene of my birth. and don't tell him my opinion of them or I shall be slaughtered.

Dick wrote to me the other day from Solan offering to put me up, and also saying they were going to Simla at the end of July for three months.
I may be able to get a fortnight's leave between July & September in which case I think I shall go to Simla and revisit the

I have nothing else to say except to protest loudly against the Cornhill which in a moment of patriotism I subscribed to for a year.

Really what with talks about servants ~~for~~ by his Sister, Amy's experiences of district visiting, Art prizes and days spent with Em-perors it is getting more degraded every month.

St. Joe and Amy's legs ought to be burnt.
yours lovingly
Ralph