Dear Madam

The enclosed letter is answer to one of mine to the Tribune might interest you. I wrote to ask if they intended supporting women's Suffrage - and whether they would support it in the only way worth doing now. i.e. urge it upon the Government as one of its own measures.

The reply is guarded

a non-committal but not-unfavourable. I wonder if any other members of the Society have thought of writing in this sense to the Tribune. I sent a stamped & addressed envelope for reply.

would you kindly let me have the letter back when you have done with it.

Faithfully yours

Eleanor W. Allen
