Dear Mrs Billington Greig,

Thank you for your letter of April 30. I remember you very well as a boy, and have even recollections of hearing you speak. Those were certainly exciting days.

It is a little hard to know what you could do for us but I think we are rather weak on obituaries of one or two of the Suffragists. Would you care to write 4-500 words about Sylvia Pankhurst? She has some interesting subsequent by-paths including Communism and Ethiopia. I am not quite sure what our obituary of Christabel is like but I will get it looked up. Can you suggest any others who might be worth a paragraph or so?

These notes need not take a lot of trouble as just the bare outlines would suffice

Yours sincerely,

P.S. I have looked at the obits and see that we have a good notice of Christabel Pankhurst but it needs an additional paragraph to explain what happened to her after 1918. Can you do this?

Mrs Billington Greig.
