Dear Miss Strachey,

I am so glad to have your letter this morning telling me that your Committee will co-operate with the National Union Executive in forming a joint Committee to arrange for holding some large meetings in London.

If you will send me the names of the members of the London Society who will act on it, I shall convene a meeting at the earliest possible opportunity, or shall I simply send the notice convening the meeting to you to be sent on to your members ?

I shall send on to our three representatives, the kind invitation of the Public-Meetings Sub Committee to attend their next meeting - but I am afraid one at least, Dr Bentham, will not be able to accept it as her consulting hours are at that time.

Thanks for the other enclosures - re Branches and Parliamentary Divisions - I do like them on separate sheets - but you will not mind one acknowledgment of them will you ?

Yours very truly,
