Darling to Mother
It's Sunday today & Daddy & Markie have been doing the same things as usual in the workshop & are still hammering.
Markie is very jolly & happy & I think Daddy is rested.

I went to the High Pavement Chapel this morning & enjoyed it very much indeed. Mr. Boyd Thomas is the minister. He visits at Holloway once a week. I was introduced to him after the service & he says he will ask for you next time he goes. I am sure you would like the service there it reminds me of Mr Campbell's service & the sermon was splendid. Mrs Simons says that the congregation don't like his being militant.

This afternoon Helen & I have been for a walk & to see the Castle. Gorth went yesterday to Bournemouth & he starts on his tour tomorrow - Monday.
My sweet pea seeds are coming up in the garden & I have planted nasturtiums. I hope the garden will be nice when you see it again. The pinks have been lovely, but are getting over.

The garden over the way is just glorious, all the fruit trees are out & the view from my bedroom is better than ever. The little kitten is flourishing but its eyes are not open yet & it wobbles about so funny. Helen is going to add a line. I send my very best love. I like being here very much indeed. This afternoon I went with Dorro to the Arboretum and from there to the castle.
The little kitten is so sweet and funny, it has not opened its eyes yet. Uncle Dorro and Markie are perfectly well. I came here on Thursday and am going next Wednesday. Uncle and Markie have been in the workshop today and are still laughing about it there. I send much love and many kisses.

I have learned how to turn on the latte good bye love from Mary

all are very well & happy.

I am speaking at Wotton Basson on Tuesday with Miss Laura Ainsworth.

I am keeping the flag flying & am pushing petition for Nurse Pitfield.

(2 Some messages received today.

(If you have any idea of the date) ?

each day you might use it

I may be in London on Tuesday or Thursday.

I am also helping Mr Lawrence.

all goes very well indeed, you need not be one little bit anxious about us.

We think of you all the time & get more & more proud!

always your loving

Tom
