Dear Miss Strachey.

My husband asks
me to thank you for inviting him to the meeting on the 28th
and wishes me to express his intense
regrets that he cannot be present. He has an important engagement

that night.

He is, as you know,
a member of the Conciliation Committee, & is eager for the success of ~~the~~ ^{its} measure. If it should not pass
through all its stages
in the Commons he will

was indignant as the most indignant woman
 amongst us, & will feel able to justify anything short of physical violence which suffragets may choose to do

with kind regards,
 Ethel Snowden
