Baltimore

November 8 1884

In forwarding the enclosed letter from The Queen Sir Henry Porsonby
asks to be permitted to add his sincere expression of condolence to Mrs Jewett - He

met Mr Fewcett
about a fortnight ago by order of Her Majesty, and obtained from him the most
clear and excellent opinions on political questions, that were considered extremely valuable.

The universal expression of sorrow it
may be hoped will afford some solace
to Mrs Fewcett

Si Henry Ponsomb,

begs Mrs. Fawcett not to take the trouble
of noticing his letter

But perhaps if she is able, she would write one line of acknowledgement
direct to Her Majesty.
