My dear Pippa

I arrive at last from the dead to say us on our way back to London where we shall arrive on Sunday 22nd and are going to 46 Inverness Terrace W.2. I shall come round to Gordon Square as soon as possible. We are all quite well except me who am rather debilitated. I expect the climate of Nice didn't agree with me and that I shall soon get all right again. Dorothy came to lunch with us a few days ago and told us Elinor was staying with her - I sent her my love.

I shall be extremely glad to be at home again ~~to~~ and to see you all especially you my dear.
 No more now
 ever your loving
 Ralph
