

Garibaldi in 1848

AL/2559

"Fortune, who betray us to-day, will smile on us tomorrow.

I am going out ~~from Rome~~ Rome. Let those who wish to continue the war against the stranger, come with me. I offer neither pay, nor quarters, nor provisions; I offer hunger, thirst, forced marches, battles & death.
Let him also love his country in his heart &
not with his lips only, follow me."

This is the bit I wanted to find yesterday. It was after his defeat in Rome in 1848
