HOME OFFICE,
WHITEHALL.

25th July, 1913.

Sir,

In reply to your telegram of to-day's date and to the letter which you left at this Office on the 22nd instant respecting the case of Mrs. Mary Wyan, I am directed by the Secretary of State to refer you to the answer which he gave to the Question asked by Mr. Wedgwood in the House of Commons on the 22nd instant, and to say that he sees no ground for any action on his part with regard to her conviction. If Mrs. Wyan will give an undertaking for the future not to break the law, the Secretary of State is prepared to advise the remission of the remainder of her sentence, and the Governor of Holloway Prison has to-day been instructed to inform Mrs. Wyan accordingly.

The Name and Address of the Sender, IF NOT TO BE TELEGRAPHED, should be written in the Space provided at the Back of the Form.

NOTICE TO THE SENDER OF THIS TELEGRAM.

This Telegram will be accepted for Transmission subject to the Telegraph Acts and Regulations made thereunder, and to the following Conditions:—

1. The charge for transmission will cover the cost of delivery from the usual Delivery Office:—
 - (a) If the address is within three miles from the usual Delivery Office, or within the limits of the Town Postal delivery of that Office (when it is a Head Post Office) if that delivery extends to more than three miles.
 - (b) If the Sender desires it to be forwarded by Post from the Terminal Telegraph Office and shall write the word "Post" before the Addressee's name, and at the end of the address the name of the Office at which the Telegram is to be posted.
2. The charge for delivery of this Telegram during ordinary office hours at any address beyond the limits of free delivery will be at the rate of 3d. for each mile, reckoned from the limits of free delivery. Provided that any fraction of a mile beyond any complete number of miles shall be reckoned as a mile. This charge will be payable by the Sender and should be prepaid.
3. If the Sender desires this Telegram to be forwarded by Train from the Terminal Telegraph Office, he must write the word "Train" at the end of the address, and must pay the actual cost of the conveyance, if such cost be known, or must deposit 1s.
4. The Sender may prepay a reply not exceeding in length 48 words. In such case a Form of Pass will be handed to the Addressee. The Pass will, within two months from its date, frank any Telegram not exceeding in length the number of words stated on such Pass. If the Pass be not used, its value will be paid to the Sender of the original Telegram on application being made, within two months, to the Secretary, General Post Office, London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, as the case may be. The Pass must accompany the application.
5. A Telegram can be repeated back from Office to Office throughout the course of transmission if the Sender desires to adopt this security against the risk of error. The charge for repetition (which must be paid when the Telegram is handed in) is one-half the charge for transmission, any fraction of a 1d. less than $\frac{1}{2}$ d. being reckoned as $\frac{1}{2}$ d. If containing mercantile quotations or code words a Telegram ought always to be repeated.
6. The Postmaster-General will not be liable for any loss or damage which may be incurred or sustained by reason or on account of any mistake or default in the transmission or delivery of a Telegram.
7. All applications respecting this Telegram must be made within three months from the date of its transmission.
