Dearest Pippa.

I hear from Jamie that you will actually accept me as a tenant!
Can it be true? Do you realize what a lot of midnight calls it will probably bring upon you, to say nothing of dallyings round the breakfast table — & above all — literally above all — the possibility of another infant brought into the world under your roof?

It really seems to me too nice for us — we would feel so very much at home again. But I think we must consider details & learn your conditions some day.

For the moment I will only say what a delightful idea it seems from our point of view & that we'd do our best to be accommodating

We should of course clear out wherever wanted to & we'd do our best to be clean & quiet. Two virtues essential in tenants. As for rent etc. you must Tell me what you ask - By etc. I mean light & heat & anything else of the kind -

I hear you are just off on a jaunt so you won't want to bother now, but perhaps I can come & see you when you return - I am was so delighted at hearing for you to - I don't wonder.
Much love from
