Dear Miss Paley

I am sorry that I cannot keep you
about the deputation
I would have gone willingly, had I been in town - but I have left London for the season - I have only

see Lady Wemyss see and Lady Montague of Beauties (if it is the reigning lady) I do not know at all.

I wish I could think of any other <sup>Conservative</sup> ladies! but our party are sadly blind!

Miss Clementina
Black wrote to me

Have you thought of Mrs Beeson - the Archbishop's widow? she is a valient supporter. but I suppose would hardly count as a <sup>con-</sup>servative some time ago, as Key go deep towards the expresses of the declaration I enclose a trifle. and only wish I could make it more; - but my purse is a slender
one - & the calls on it many. -

Believe me
very truly yours
Louisa M. F. M'night
