

AL/1903

28 Lake View
Canons Park

Edgware.

Middlesex

14th February.

[?1972]

Dear Mrs. Harton

Thank you for your very kind letter which of course I was very pleased to receive.

I am so glad you found the book of interest. Elsie Inglis really had an amazing life, hadn't she? It was this that made me determined to do the book — one felt that with such a remarkable story to tell,
it ought to find a public somehow.
I didn't realise quite how remarkable it all was, until I got well into the research, and of course all those manuscripts reports at the Fawcett library were the making of it. Thank you again for all your help and encouragement when I was working there. I'm glad to say that the publishers returns up to date seem to indicate quite a good sale to libraries so it will be available to lots of readers, which is what one was hoping for.

I was very interested to know that Dame Kathleen Courtney remembers Elsie Inglis - I had not realised this somehow.

Thank you again for your very kind letter.

Yours sincerely

Margot Thompson

FAWCETT LIBRARY
27 WILFRED STREET
LONDON, S.W.1.

8319
FAWCETT LIBRARY
27 WILFRED STREET
LONDON, S.W.1.

Margaret Lawrence