Dear Mr. Arnold Green

I must first trouble you with a line to tell you how much I have enjoyed reading the old book you sent me by the Rev Henry Mansfield Chapman at Aleppo in 1697 describing his journeying in Palestine.
I don't know Aleppo at all but as soon as he gets into Palestine

X. except - as has had 7 calls for his handwriting of his other volumes in these letters.

I have followed him with very great interest & pleasure.

His book is always the first which enters 17th or 18th

2nd century: but the Rev. Henry is very learned & pleasing.

I have kept the book for my bedside, and am now reading it in L. Dines. With renewed warm thanks for the kind & ft. Ever very sincerely

W. C. Fawcett
