June. 14. /10.

My dear Mrs Fawcett.

I saw with amazement that Asquith had consented to receive a deputation. Pharoah's heart with a vengeance! Tonight I get a note (official) of Miss Mason - saying the deputation must not exceed 20. It ought to be smaller in my view. I don't think I can come. We are to have on the 21st -

Birmingham & St Albans
before the Commission, & the Church - wants such a deal of handling. They are so intolerable in their attitude, especially with regard to women, that I oh - much regret not being present -

I can't come on Thursday, as I am speaking at Weston super mare. It will be me all day. Arthur hope has run straight to-

day. Yrs affly
