Dear Mrs Fawcett -

I do not think anything wd be gained, by anything in the shape of a deputation to Arthur. I am quite sure whatever he can do, he will do, & I explained to you, besides his own soundness, he knows the P.M. wishes good luck to the Bill. I shall write to Arthur telling him I have written to you in this sense, and I think that will be all sufficient. I am working quietly at individual M. P's.

we shall suffer of a small house of suspect. Today I go to Wilton nr Salisbury.
Friday. Mells. Frome.
Monday. Home.

Yrs sincerely
Francis Balfour
