

TELEPHONE,
800, KENSINGTON.

with skin.

AL/3233

47, CADOGAN SQUARE.

S.W. I.

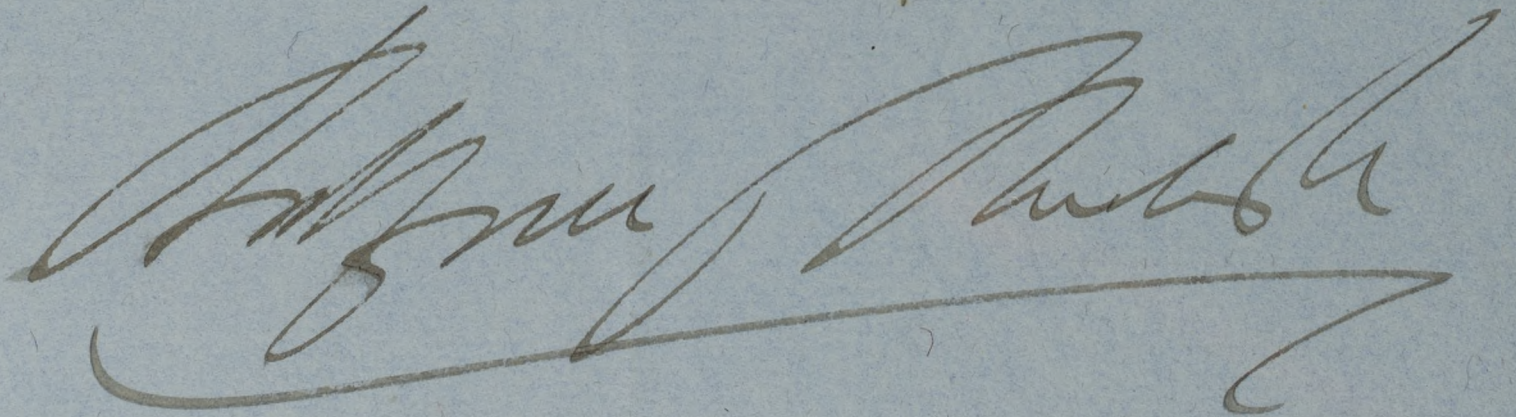

4th May, 1917.

Dear Miss Ford,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of yesterday, and to say in reply that I will keep myself free on the afternoon of Friday, July 6th, if that will suit you.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

A large, elegant handwritten signature in dark ink, which appears to be 'Alfred Russel Wallace'. The signature is written in a cursive style with long, sweeping strokes and a prominent flourish at the end.