Dear Miss Billinghurst,

Oh, we are so glad that you are out of that awful place — how dare they torture you! Please accept the thanks of us all for the splendid stand that you made — we can't write it down in words, but you know how we feel towards you and the other brave women who have endured so much for us all. Please get better quickly, for we cannot do without you. You know you are to have the place of honour of on our platform next to Mrs Pankhurst on February 4th. Please bring your mother as well — we shall be glad to see you both again. Will you let us know how many tickets you want. For account of our doing, see the "Suffragette".

Good Luck to all the women on Thursday - am sorry none of us are unable to go, but three members have promised for the evening.

We are enormously busy, working for Sept. 4th.

With much love from us all,
Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
Dora Gregory.
