BISHOPSCOURT,

MANCHESTER.

Dec 22. 1898.

Dear Mrs Fawcett,

Thank you very much for your kind congratulations.

I would have written earlier, but my compensation has found con-considerable difficulty of late in tracing my whereabouts -

It is rather a poor compliment to me that immediately after my speech at your debate I received a letter asking me to join a Committee for Oppo-Sing Woman's Suffrage. They have written again since, and I am meditating a dignified reply to state what I think of them. They must be rather hard up

I met Mr. Ball at

"What Every Woman Knows"

— a very health-giving play.

Yours sincerely

RA Knox.
