Dear Miss Phillips,

Your letter of September 18th was before my Committee yesterday, and I am desired to inform you that they welcome the suggestion of holding some large joint public meetings in London with the National Union, and have referred the <sup>matter</sup> ~~meeting~~ to their Sub-Committee for Public Meetings for further report.

I am instructed by the Sub-Committee for Public Meetings to invite the attendance of the three members of your Executive appointed to represent them in this matter to a meeting of the Sub-Committee in this office on Monday, October 4th at 11 a.m.

Yours truly,

P.S.
