Fanny Burney on Garrick.

- 24 ——— Fine Autograph Manuscript on Garrick, DR. BURNEY, and OLIVER GOLDSMITH, forming Part of her Biography of her father, Dr. Burney, concerning an unfortunate mistake of Garrick and Goldsmith's opinion of his character, 1½ pp., 4to. £25

"Mr. Garrick possessed not only every possible inflexion of voice, save for singing, but also of countenance; varying his looks into young, old, sick, vigorous, downcast, or frolicsome, at his personal volition; as if his face, and even his Form, had been put into his own hands to be worked upon like Man a Machine."

Fanny Burney on Warren Hastings' Trial.

- 25 ——— AUTOGRAPH LETTER INITIALLED, 4 pp., 4to. [Feb. 21, 1786], to Mrs. Francis (her sister Charlotte), referring to the trial of Warren Hastings, the first paragraph in the handwriting of Charles Burney, the letter folded and bearing the address (seal cut away, affecting one or two words) £12

An important letter. Miss Burney was a strong supporter of Warren Hastings. "My brother . . . desires me to tell Mr. Francis that he saw Mr. Hastings yesterday, at his own House, surrounded with his friends, and in excellent spirits. He advises Mr. F. to take in the Morning Chronicle, to see how the attack goes on in the House. Nobody seems at all apprehensive for Mr. Hastings . . . My poor Mrs. Delaney was very ill yesterday, and frightened me much. . ."

- 26 ——— AUTOGRAPH LETTER, signed F. D'Arblay, 4 pp., 4to., Ilfracombe, Aug. 11, 1817, to Lady Charlotte Fitzgerald £10

A long, closely written and very interesting letter typical of Fanny Burney and the eighteenth century showing the beginnings of a feeling for the picturesque in nature, but before the appreciation of the picturesque in architecture, as typified in Ilfracombe, which is roundly abused.

" . . . The waves rushed forward sometimes with an impetuosity so sudden, so furious, and so unexpected that I have not always been able to escape a surprise. I won't say of a wet jacket, yet of something more than a wet petticoat."

"My son has eight fellow Cantabs, at work like himself with A plus B under the same Tutor."

- 338 HENRIETTA MARIA (Consort of Charles I.) AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED, 2 pp., 4to., Paris, April 30. 1660, to the Duke of Lauderdale, written shortly before the Restoration of Charles II., a superb letter, with seals and silks, with historical note £8
- She is pleased to have news by the letter which the bearer brought her, and has no doubt that had the occasions been the same in the past, she would have had news more frequently. Now the reasons that have prevented Lauderdale in the past are removed (Lauderdale had been imprisoned for nine years), she wishes him to write as often as possible. Full credence may be placed in the bearer who is left to confer with him on all things.*
- This appears to be the only letter of the Queen's to Lauderdale preserved. The Lauderdale Papers were formerly at Ham House and were acquired by Dawson Turner, at the sale of whose library they were bought by the British Museum. It is said that the Scottish papers were stolen from Ham House, and the above letter is stated to be one of them.*

Mrs. Piozzi on Dr. Jenner and Vaccination.

- 395 PIOZZI (Hester Lynch) THREE FINE AUTOGRAPH LETTERS SIGNED, addressed to Miss Williams [probably Helen Maria Williams, Author of "Edwin and Eltruda," 1782, &c.] (small seal holes), as under:— £30
Four pp. 4to, Penzance, August 10, 1820. A closely written interesting letter with shrewd remarks and gay comments on social life. . . . "I have had very pleasant Bathing . . . and it gives me a good Appetite for Roast Beef. . . . We play Sixpenny Whist at our most magnificent Parties—where home made Cakes, and home made Wines are liberally distributed. Maids to wait I observe, & Mutton Candles: Sedan Chairs with two Lamps each like a Post Chaise . . . but the Ladies are all real Gentlefolk such as you would approve of . . . and proud of their Ancient Names . . ."
Four pp. 4to, Tuesday, Jan. 23, 1821. "I had an odd Accident last Sunday . . . a naughty Boy, threw a Stone which hit my Head so that I had reason to rejoice in its Thickness . . . I wonder too if your poor William had been Vaccinated—it seems now to be accounted no Preservation at all. Dr. Jenour has outlived his Fame: in the Year 1811 the World was all at his Feet but I see one may live too long to be either useful to one's self or entertaining to others."

Mrs. Piozzi with a Message from Johnson.

- 396 ——— AUTOGRAPH LETTER SIGNED, "H. L. T.," 3 pp., 4to., Wednesday, Streatham, N.D., to her Aunt Cotton (slight repair at folds) £15
" . . . My Master keeps upon his Legs very prettily, and we have had a merry Xmas . . . that delightful mortal Piozzi, the famous Italian singer, spent a day or two entertaining us with his astonishing Powers. What most amazed the People of the Ton was his condescending to play Country Dances (for the 1st time in his Life)—while we pretty Masters and Misses set to dancing. . . ."
"Mr. Johnson desires me to take Care and keep your kindness for him alive. . . ."

" . . . 'The Pastor's Fireside' is published. I wish I could lay a sett at your feet; but, my copies have been so few you must have the goodness with most of my friends to take the will for the deed . . . I shall feel great pleasure if you and Mr. Hanway approve the story . . . if the public dislike the serious . . . they must even turn their backs on the Porter's hearth."
