Dear Madam

I did not see the report to which you refer in your letter of Feb^{ry} 2nd. It is not true that I was "prepared to support Sir C Dilke but unavailably prevented from so doing". Sir Sir C Dilke has been a candidate for Parliament. I have had no relations of any kind with him. Before this states of affairs I was present upon more than one occasion upon a platform with him in the presence of Dean . The circumstances under which this occurred need not be detailed here; but I may say that I then believed Sir C Dillie to consider himself reasonably bound not to attempt to re-enter Parliament until he had cleared his character from justly
