My dear Sir

My dear Sir

Your kind note dated October accompanied by the beautiful Forget-not arrived here only yesterday - Wishes to thank you for it & to assure you that I will send an article in time this year.

The present volume appears to me particularly good - Mr. Lusk & Mr. Lewis have infused into it great life & beauty & the old tales they is full of woft paths - Miss Gordon's verses are very sweet & Dr. Howitt's sonnets worthy to accompany dear Miss Howitt's ballads - which is saying much - but the whole collection is good

- W. Chaley's season for our liking Lindwall is perhaps the very prettiest & finest page in the book - I never before felt my reading =dilection for that charming nursery tale so thoroughly in=dicated.

Hope that you & all belonging to you are in good health - & with every kind wish of this season & of every season, remain
My dear Sir

Very faithfully yours
W. M. Mitford
