2^d March

27, Park Street, W.

My Dowager Lady Buchan
thanks Mr McHughan
for her obliging answer to her suggestion
about the abridgement
of her clever pamphlet Lady Buchan hopes
Mr McHughan will be so good as to make the abridgement and
condensation desirable
herself, as she can do it to much better than would be possible to any one

that could be found here and it would not take long to make the omissions needed Lady Buehan would then immediately
cause the reprinting
by the women's ~~help~~ to be put in hand

It seems ^{very} desirable that nothing should be omitted or forgotten
which will forward
the chances of our new attempt in April next. But a failure should be
contemplated as quite within the bound of probability and thus the sacred and noble Christian cause
should be still, as

Lady Buchar Trust
the constant and consistent aim of all British women
until the blessed
object is achieved
