Dear Mr Smith

May I send you
my little "Consecration Hymn"; & when you
glance through it, will you pray that God would bless it, to many hearts. I think He has done so already.

I feel so sure that He not only will make but is making

"the wrath of man
to praise Him" as regards the terrible unfairness of the Record towards you.
It is so obviously unfair that in many cases it has roused
the English spirit
of siding with the oppressed, & probably no course could have induced more readers to get your books to see for themselves!

As you knew of the great & gracious blessing the loving Master
sent to me, I thought I should like to tell you that I find it stands every test, & lasts, or rather increases!
Oh He is so good to me!
Yours in His most happy service
J. M. Aveyal
