Who to?
(Perhaps Miss Robinson may know?)

Dear Madam,

It is a very great pleasure to receive your letter and to hear of such a splendid opening for work. I cannot answer any of your questions as it is the National Union which takes charge of the formation of new Societies. I am therefore sending on your letter to Miss Corbett, who I am sure will be most delighted to receive it and to give you all the help in her power.

The only way I can see at present to help you is to send you a bundle of literature which I hope will help you. I hope if there is any way in which this office can be of any assistance that you will always be sure to write and ask for it, and that you will come and see us when you are in town.

With very best wishes for the Harleston Branch, and many congratulations on your success up to the present in such a difficult neighbourhood.

I am,
Yours very truly,

P.S.
