Dear Miss Palliser,

Some time ago I wrote you a letter containing my opinion on Women's Suffrage. You apparently did not publish it at the time. Unless you have lost it it might suffice you now.

Also I have recently written a letter to the "Times" (October 29th) and given an interview to the "Evening Standard" (October 30th) which I think has already been published as a Leaflet by some Society. With these three possibilities before you of obtaining words of mine I must beg to be excused from furnishing any fresh material at a period when I am very busy.

Yours very truly,

Paul Zangwill
