

Fru Kjelsberg, Norway.

Active in Social & Political Work Formed Business Women's Union to improve working conditions of women employed in Norwegian businesses & offices.

Concerned with creating number of women's & mixed societies.

Member of Town Council. Special Jury Service in chief N. Criminal Court.

Inquired into conditions in factories
 Organized movement for Factory laws
 First several Royal Commissioners then series of Factory Reform laws

After some years Fru Kjelsberg was made first woman Factory Inspector

1910

Wages active campaign for observance of law - for cleanliness - & time keeping - checking illegal usages like employment of children - too long hours - suitable washing & eating conditions etc. <sup>owners &</sup> Education of work-people on hygiene, equipment, amenities etc followed.

Then practical training classes for housewives & mothers.

Studied factory conditions in other countries.

Appointed Norwegian Government
delegate to the I.L.O. 1921

Influenced many decisions on working conditions - on employment of children, factory legislation etc.